

ORGANIST CRAIG WILLIAMS IN RECITAL

Friday, November 14, 2003—7:30 PM
St. Stephen's Episcopal Cathedral
Front Street below Pine, Harrisburg

Sponsored by the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and St. Stephen's Cathedral. A free-will offering will benefit the Guild's Yocum Scholarship Fund.

Craig S. Williams is presently the Organist and Director of Music at the Cadet Chapel, United States Military Academy West Point, where he plays the world's largest church pipe organ. He received degrees in piano performance from the University of Southern California and the Juilliard School and in organ performance at Westminster Choir College, studying under Eugene Roan. Organ credits include performing at Carnegie Hall with the Orchestra of St. Luke's, giving numerous recitals for prominent cathedrals throughout the country. In addition to his duties at West Point, he serves on the faculty of the conservatory division at Westminster Choir College.
